Our Workingmen's Trousers!

Our Workingmen's Trousers have won a whole army of friends for us. Many a workingman has told us that he never knew what it was to have a satisfactory pair of Working Trousers until he tried a pair of our sort, THE DUTCHESS. The best Trousers maker we know anything about builds these Trousers to our special order. We select the most durable Trousers fabrics made and then have them correctly cut in style, but cut to give room where room is wanted. They are strongly made and doubly secured at all points where strain comes. We'll simply say concerning our Workingmen's Trousers that nothing has been omitted that would better them in style, comfort or durability. $1.00 to $4.00 per pair.

Charles Frohman will present at the opera house to-night J. M. Barrie's fascinating play, "Peter Pan." No play of recent times has approached "Peter Pan" in popularity. It is now in its fifth year in England, and in its third in American favor. An exceptionally fine cast will be seen in "Peter Pan" by local theatre-goers.

At the opera house to-night Charles Frohman will present "Peter Pan." J. M. Barrie's most-loved play, "Peter Pan" was first produced five years ago in London, and three years ago in New York. In both countries it is still a popular and growing favorite. More than sixty persons will appear in the production of "Peter Pan" here, and the cast is one of unusual merit.
